beauty and largeness. After him the park became a tourist centre. The varying surroundings with forests and lakes, fields and hilltops and historic atmosphere charm as well the occasional tourists as those who stay a longer period.

At the beginning of 1939 a modern hotel was opened in the wellknown tourist centre of Aulanko. The hotel is situated in the immediate vicinity of the town of Hämeenlinna in one of the largest parks of the North. The hotel comprises 56 guestrooms (83 beds) with own balconies. All modern comforts: electric
